

---

Sponsors:

---

About the Speakers:

Floyd O. May is HUD General Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy Development and Research at HUD's Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity.

Ignatius MacLellan is Acting Director of Fannie Mae's Northern New England Partnership Office, which serves Maine, Vermont and New Hampshire.

Bonnie Peak-Graham is with the Office of FHEO, N.E. Hub of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

William S. Ray is the Director of Planning and Policy at the NH Housing Finance Authority. He oversees the collection and analysis of housing, economic and demographic data that support the activities of the Authority.

Christine Wellington, Esquire was hired by New Hampshire Legal Assistance in May 2000 as the project director of the Fair Housing Project.

Mary Sliney is the Executive Director of The Way Home, a non-profit organization dedicated to assisting low income tenants to access safe, affordable housing.

Special thanks to the Fannie Mae Foundation for their support of this community event.

Building the Future of Fair Housing

Opportunities for Civic Leadership

Presented by the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development and the
New Hampshire Institute of Politics

Date: April 21, 2004

Time: 9:00 a.m.—12:30 p.m.

---

Agenda

Part I

- 9:00 – 9:30 Registration
- 9:30 – 9:45 Welcome and remarks
* Father Jonathan DeFelice, O.S.B., President,
Saint Anselm College
* Greg Carson, Manchester Field Office Director,
U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development
- 9:45 – 10:15 Keynote Address: Floyd O. May
- 10:15 – 10:45 Multimedia Presentation – “You Are the Leader You Have Been Looking For”

Part II

- 10:45 - 11:30 Civic Leadership Caucuses
- Participant Caucuses:
* Obstacles to Fair Housing in New Hampshire:
It happens here (Chris Wellington)
* Environmental Justice: Subtle discrimination
(Mary Sliny)
* Housing Development: How it gets done, who does it (Bill Ray) * Local Leadership: Creating fair housing communities (Ignatius MacLellan)
* The Power of Community
(Bonnie Peak-Graham)
- 11:45 – 12:30 Opportunities for Civic Leadership—Panel
- 12:30 Speakers available for one-on-one discussions,
interviews with the media

Note: Participants may attend one or both parts of the program.

---

Building the Future of Fair Housing

Presented by the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development
and the
New Hampshire Institute of Politics
at Saint Anselm College

April 21, 2004

A dialogue with students, faculty, public officials, and community leaders on key issues in housing
discrimination in New Hampshire and America.
Talk with state and national leaders on the unfinished business of the Fair Housing laws and your responsibilities in professions of law, politics, social service, science and teaching.

Keynote Speaker: Floyd O. May, HUD General Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy Development and Research at HUD’s Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity.

Caucus Facilitators: Ignatius MacLellan, Fannie Mae; Bonnie Peak-Graham, HUD; William S.
Ray, New Hampshire Housing Finance Authority; Christine Wellington, NH Legal Assistance; and Mary Sliney, The Way Home.

REGISTER BY PHONE OR E-MAIL AT NHIOF
Call 603.222.4100 or E-mail nhiop@anselm.edu

Please RSVP by Friday, April 16, 2004

